After 25 years, we have stood fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the goals of success.

HISTORY OF WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL 1959-1987

The construction of Westwood School began in the spring of 1959 and was completed in September, 1959. The building consisted of sixteen classrooms and a cafeteria. Increased enrollment caused a change in the original plans for an elementary and junior high school for the 1959-1960 school year, and resulted in the transfer of the entire ninth grade to Whitehaven High School; thus the 1959-1960 school year found Westwood as an eighth grade elementary school. The Shelby County Board of Education made immediate plans for additional classrooms and a gym.

In December, 1959, an additional sixteen classrooms and a gym were started and they were completed in September, 1960. The 1959-1960 school year was truly an eventful one with the look to the future which promised to be even more eventful. Westwood's student body was a result of a division in the Levi Elementary School district located approximately one mile north of Westwood. H. C. Fryar, Jr. was appointed principal and Mrs. V. Mason, secretary. A group of interested mothers met at Levi Baptist Church in August, 1959, to form the first P.T.A. at Westwood; Mrs. B. Irvin was elected by the group to serve as the first president.

The school colors, columbia blue and scarlet, were selected. Westwood being located in the extreme western section of Shelby County, received the nickname the 'Westerners' while the emblem or mascot was to be the Longhorn steer.

In September of 1960, Westwood added a ninth grade program to the curriculum and dedicated a sixteen room addition to accommodate the increase in enrollment.

In the summer of 1961, work on the athletic grounds started. A football field was started and a baseball diamond with lights was completed. There was a need for a larger parking lot, and action was taken by the county shops; the parking lot was completed a month prior to the 1961-1962 school year.

The building program, for a period of two years, had run on scheduled for completion by September was not ready until November. Again all classrooms were being used, and the need for additional classrooms and cafeteria space was needed; thereby, bringing about the decision for a separate elementary school to accommodate grades 1-6. This building was to be completed by September of 1962. Thus most of the initial building program and additions were completed during the principalship of H. C. Fryar, Jr. and prior to 1966.

During the 1968-1969 school year, under the administration of Forrest P. Lafferty, Westwood was annexed to the city. Mr. Lafferty retired from the school system in the spring of 1970.

In the fall of 1970, Pete Meadows became principal during a time when the Westwood community was undergoing a racial transition. The once all-white community decreased, and the black community increased; thus increasing the school's black population.

As a result of Westwood's increased student enrollment, two assistant principals and an administrative aide were added to the administrative staff. Moreover, additional portable buildings were sporadically placed around the school's campus. By this time Westwood had one of the largest high school enrollments in the Memphis area.

During the aftermath of racial strife in 1974, Joseph K. Carr became the first black principal to be assigned to Westwood. The faculty continued to grow as did the student enrollment.

Because of the school's rapid growth, consideration was given toward expansion and renovation of the plant's facilities. During the spring of 1978, under Harold E. McRae's astute supervision, an all out campaign was made to instill school pride into all students. As a result of this campaign, Westwood adopted its first school motto: "No goal is too high if we climb with care and confidence." Consequently, this motto and its acceptance characterized the goal of school pride among the students and the community.

Another boost to the morale of the entire enrollment, faculty, and community was Westwood's participation in the Adopt-a-School Program. The school was adopted by the prominent local corporation of Malone and Hyde. Using its resources and personnel to encourage and foster a spirit of excellence and involvement in the community, Malone and Hyde has been successful in achieving one of the main objectives of the Adopt-a-School Program.

Therefore, it is the desire of this administration to continue in the rich tradition of providing not only educational growth but also social and civic awareness in the Westwood High School Community.

Principal's Message

I extend my best wishes and hearty congratulations to the senior class of 1987. I frequently reflect upon that period three years ago when I watched most of you arrive at Westwood and begin to pursue a course that has carried you to the brink of graduation. On the eve of one of the greatest moments of your life, I challenge each of you to reach for the stars as you begin thinking of career choices and goals. If you have the courage and the will, "No goal is too high if you climb with care and confidence."

Congratulations on our 25th school anniversary.

Mr. H. E. McRae

DEDICATION

The Class of 1987 would like to dedicate this year's Westerner to Mrs. Elma Delk Hill. She came to Westwood on November 26, 1970, and she is presently an eleventh and twelfth grade English teacher. She attended college at Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, Alabama and also Memphis State University. She is member of the NAACP, and she is a member of Greater Middle Baptist Church where she is in the women's chorus and is a committee member of the Educational Committee.

Her hobbies are meeting new and interesting people and also preparing and serving food to large gatherings. Her words of encouragement to the class of '87 are to "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him; and he shall direct thy paths."

Westwood High School's art program is designed for the young, enthusiastic artist interested in art as a possible career. The student who follows the art program will be well educated in drawing and painting, photography and printmaking, pottery and fibers, commercial art, sculpture, and computer art. Westwood has a "high quality" art program and the art students bring back many honors and awards for their school. 1 Trini Adams creates a reduction lino-print. 2 True artistic expression takes total concentration for artist Calvin Macklin. 3 Some of artists at WHS include: Back Row: Mr. Kocsis, Benjamin Hooker, Reginald Matthews, James Duncan, McConta Echols, Harvey Lynch, Mikis Ballard, Craig Green, Charles Hodges, Richard Holmes, Clifton Barnes, Jimmy Batchelor, and Mrs. Bailey. Middle Row: Cedric Hooker, Trini Adams, Calvin Macklin, and Charles Young. Front Row: Miram Dye, Camille Lyles, Estella Ruthledge, Sammy Metcalf, and Kim Butler. 4 The 1987 Outstanding Senior Artists are Patrick Martin, Julius Robinson, and James Duncan. 5 Craig Green constructs a sculpture box patterned after artist Joseph Cornell.

OUTSTANDING CHOIR HISTORY IMAGE

The Westwood Senior High Chorus has participated in many activities throughout the city. Some of the many competitions they have competed in are: "All Show Choir Festivals," "All West-Tennessee Honors Choir," "All-State Honor Choir" and more. They have received superior and excellent ratings in all of the above performances. The choir has also performed at various places such as: City Hall, Board of Education, "Black Cultural Exposition '87," "The Six Flags Choral Festival" in St. Louis, Missouri, and numerous schools.

Daniel Duncan, a member of the choir had the pleasure of being selected as a participant in the Governor's School of the Arts. We congratulate the choir on their outstanding performances for 1987 keep up the good work!!!

WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL BAND IMAGE

This years' "Longhorns Band" has participated in many activities for the year (86-87) locally. They have made many appearances, such as, the "Christmas" and "Veteran's Day Parades" — "Memphis and Shelby County Senior Citizens Banquet", "MIDSM," and "Black History Concerts" at Havenview, Chickasaw, Westwood Elementary, Whites' Creek, Lanier and Ford Road Schools. "Memphis in May" was a great success, because the Band kicked off the rally at the Peabody Hotel.

The Jazz Band is very phenomenal also because, they won first place in the "Jazz Band Festival" and the "Sight Reading Contest" at Central High School, and was the guest "Jazz Ensemble" for "Mega Band" 86 at the Mid-South Coliseum. Our band is not just distinguished locally, but out of town as well. In Arkansas they won first place in the Homecoming Parade at the University of Arkansas, Pine Bluff, and participated in the Inauguration Parade for Governor Ned McWherter. In New Orleans, the Band received many plaques, trophies and awards for many performances in the "Mardi Gras." They were chosen to lead both the Krewes of Pandora and the Carrollton Parades and was listed, "Inside Mardi Gras" Magazine. The Band director, Mr. Emerson R. Able was awarded a plaque by the Mardi Gras committee for years of excellent and dedicated participation in Mardi Gras Parades.

The Westwood "Longhorns" Marching Band has proven to be the best Band in Memphis and they are looking forward to another great year.

The ACES

Westwood Aces

During a time period when social clubs were a thing of the present, the Aces were looked upon as professional dancers. The original group consisted of eight members and danced under the name Disco Brother sponsored by Mr. Acie Jackson, a former teacher at Westwood (now at Riverview Jr. High). The Westwood ACES adopted Mr. Jackson's first name as their clubs name.

The Fall of 1976 they shifted from the standard of young men and ladies getting together to discuss various topics and issues to a dance group. They began to perform at Pep rallies, homecomings, sock hops and other events in their jeans and tee shirts. Mr. Jackson changed his whole philosophy, he had tryouts for the group and adopted a uniform. During that year they performed 43 times and won 3 trophies.

After many years of hard work and determination the "Aces" once again had a chance to shine. During the early 1980's after several problems and membership drop the Aces had a small hope. Mr. Reginald Williams a former Ace, entered Westwood High as a teacher and decided to bring back the Aces. By 1986 he had finally found his star group. Not only did he want young men who could perform well on the floor, but a special group of young men who could perform in the classroom as well. That year they held an Extravaganza at the Coliseum. They were invited to two out of town appearances. They won four trophies and performed 35 times.

This year, 1987, will highlight the Aces 10th year. We are all awaiting to see what they'll accomplish this year.
